

What so proudly we hail

Los Gatos Celebrates the 4th of July 2006

All-American Picnic & Games

11:00-1:30 p.m.

Patriot Plaza (Civic Center)

Begin the day's celebration with old-fashioned family fun and free entertainment. Lunch and snacks are available at food booths staffed by Los Gatos organizations: Kiwanis, Lions, Rotary, Community Foundation, Daughters of the American Revolution, and Police Foundation. The Los Gatos Art Association will provide a children's art activity.

Strike Up The Band

1:30-3:30 p.m.

Liberty Lawn
(Los Gatos High School)

Music in the Park's traditional "pops" lawn concert, organized by the Town of Los Gatos Arts Commission, will present patriotic selections, some with live cannon fire, performed by the San Jose Wind Symphony. Hot dogs and hamburgers sold by the Los Gatos High School Band Boosters.

Happy Birthday, America

3:30-4:30 p.m.

Patriot Plaza (Civic Center)

Immediately following the end of the concert, return to the Civic Center for a free cake and ice cream social. Music by the Peninsula Banjo Band.

Bingo & Lemonade in the Shade

4:30-5:30 p.m.

Patriot Plaza (Civic Center)

Free fun for all ages. The Los Gatos Senior Center's classic bingo game with prizes for the winners, and lemonade in the shade for all.

Red, White & Blue BBQ

5:30-7:00 p.m.

Patriot Plaza (Civic Center)

Enjoy a delicious chicken BBQ dinner prepared by Johnny's North Side Grill. Tickets will be available for purchase throughout the day at the Information Booth at the Civic Center. The ticket price is $10 per plate.

Yankee Doodle Dancing

6:00-8:30 p.m.

Patriot Plaza (Civic Center)

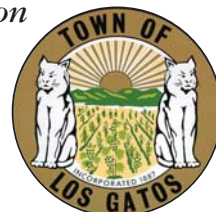

Free twilight concert and dancing to contemporary musical favorites performed by the band, "The Hit Men."
